Darling Honey Love:-

Just received your precious letter of Thursday. I am very disappointed you in the size of my letter, but I hope you realize that it was quite impossible for me to write more, as you know by now I was quite busy with Uncle Morris's case. Even to-day, I will be busy because they are still bothering Uncle Morris and I have to put a stop to it. You see, I wrote it in court, and not having any 3¢ stamps, used 2¢ stamps. My pole idea, darling, was to write something anyway, so that you could have your daily letter.

Yes, darling mine, my precious wife, please God, 3 weeks from today you will be with me. You have no idea how happy I am! Only 2 more Sundays without you, honey love, and then, love —— then? Its about time that the people down at the dispensary are saying nice things about you, honey love. Whatever they say in compliment to you, I can assure you, they don't give you half the credit that you are due. I certainly am glad that you are attending to the case to be shipped by express. Send it to 137 So. Main, to M. Frankenstein, if I don't send an address by then. That of course is when you can't send it on your ticket.

Darling Tootsie, don't let mondean revoke her promise to go to the hospital. You know how she is. Do whatever she says, don't agree, but let her go to the hospital and please God, that will do her good. I will write mondean as often as I can. You see, tootsie, I want to let you know everything and then you can tell mondean about it, if I can't write to her, see?

Honey love, the weather is magnificent out, everybody dressed in their Easter clothes, happy, laughing and enjoying themselves, but I will have to be indoors, as I will be quite busy. I don't mind it, though, because you are not here, but when you come, love, we can will enjoy ourselves, eh?

Honey love, how are you feeling? How are you in general health? Remember, take good care of yourself and strictly remember that I love you.

Must close now, darling, with all my love, hugs and kisses to you, my darling precious wifie,

Endlessly your own

Jack
